

786
California Cabernet Sauvignon

A grand Queen Anne Victorian style home located just a short walking distance from the historic Sonoma Plaza, in Sonoma, California. The Bancroft family began construction of the site in 1896 and by 1906 called it their home. One of the many prestigious visitors to this estate, General Vallejo, gave the gift of a pepper tree to the Bancroft family, (a symbol of luck); this tree still stands, as a stately figure, on the grounds today, 786 is rich in history and folklore.

Region:

Vintage 2016 showed great quality in California, with El Niño rains nourishing vines and bringing in a bountiful yield. Small lots of Cabernet Sauvignon were selected from across California's premium growing regions, from Sonoma to Paso Robles.

Tasting Notes:

A gorgeous ruby wine fills the glass. A juicy entry is marked by red cherry and blackberry. Fruit notes are balanced against dried lavender and a hint of spice, leading up to a long, pleasant finish.

Technical Notes:

Vintage: 2016 Appellation: California Alcohol: 13.2%
